Click to Enter

AWARE founding member Vivienne Wee once described activism as trying to move a paper boat to shore in a lake by throwing rocks to create ripples. Sometimes the attempts are insufficient—sometimes they may even set your boat back in the wrong direction—but you