Lindy is a co-founder of Creative Horizons Language Centre which offers enrichment classes that focus on thinking skills for the learning of the English language. Lindy has a BA (Hons) in Literature from the University of Singapore, a Diploma in Education from the Institute of Education and a Diploma in Teaching English in Singapore Schools from the Royal Society of the Arts. She taught at Junior College level (1988-1990) and at secondary level with the Gifted Education Programme (1990 -1994). From 1995, she has been an education entrepreneur.

Lindy Ong is interested in looking at definitions and manifestations of female power versus female empowerment in Singapore.

Many contemporary women feel powerful in their lives but are they really empowered? Can there be individual empowerment? Or do we achieve empowerment only when equality is a right and not only a privilege? These are issues that Lindy Ong is interested in exploring.
